

Lesson Graphic Organizer

Problems with the Articles of Confederation

- One vote per state regardless of population
- No executive functions (executive has no power)
- No judicial functions
- Amendments require unanimous consent
- No power to regulate trade

• No Power to Tax

Individual States Responsible for the Cost of the War

States raised taxes

Poor farmers in Massachusetts
- Faced jail time
- Lost property
- Lost voting rights

Shays' Rebellion

Desire to change the Articles of Confederation